

Basic organizational information about the bakery project

- The bakery is built in the name of the Greek-Catholic Patriarchate in Damascus.
 - The plot of land on which the bakery is built belongs to the Greek Catholic Parish of St. Johann Baptist in Maaruneh.
 - The Coordination Office “Melcord” (Melkite Catholic Organization for Relief and Development) is responsible for the implementation of the project. A team of experts to supervise the construction and to determine the implementation steps for the project has been set up by Melcord as follows ¹⁾:
 - Chairperson: Fr. Naim Gharbi (Melcord representative from the Patriarchate)
 - Fr. Michael Rahhal (parish priest of Maaruneh)
 - Elias Ghoneim: member of the municipal council of Maaret Saydnaya (Maaruneh belongs to this community)
 - Philip Jarjour: contractor (engineer by profession)
 - Butros Ghoneim: member of the parish council in the parish St. John the Baptist
- ¹⁾ All members of the project team for the bakery agreed to contribute their expertise and services free of charge.

Information status: September 23, 2019